

Hi friends and family!!

We are so excited you are here!! It means the world to us that you have traveled all this way to celebrate this important occasion with us.

Our website (www.gia-and-michael.party) is the best place to look for all of the important event details, as well as recommendations for places to eat and drink and things to do. We have also compiled a list of our favorite local hikes that we are including with this letter.

We are so excited to share our favorite parts of Colorado with you!!

with love,

Michael and Gia
